

SINGLE FEMALE TRUSTING GOD FOR A MATE

Father, in the name of Jesus, I believe that You are providing the very best for me. The man who will be united with me in marriage has awakened to righteousness. Father, as you have rejoiced over Jerusalem, so shall the bridegroom rejoice over me. Thank you, Father, that he will love me as Christ loves the Church. He will nourish, carefully protect, and cherish me.

Father, I believe, because the husband you are preparing for me is your best, that doubts, wavering, and insincerity are not a part of him; but he speaks forth the oracles of God, acknowledging Your full counsel with all wisdom and knowledge. He does not speak or act contrary to the Word. He walks totally in love, esteeming and preferring others higher than himself.

Father, I believe that everything not of you is removed from my life. I thank you for the perfecting of your Word in my life that I may be thoroughly furnished unto all good works. Father, I praise you for the performance of your Word on my behalf.

Scripture References:

Isaiah 62:5
Ephesians 5:25
James 3:17
Proverbs 8:8